

Parental Code of Conduct 2015

NPYB, Inc. has adopted a parental code of conduct; this form must be signed by the parent(s) of the player in order for the player to play with NPYB, Inc. Please read below and sign, if you have any questions please feel free to contact the officers at www.npyb.org.

- 1) I will provide a stable, loving, supportive environment.
- 2) I will ensure my child's prompt attendance at practice and pick my child up promptly after practice.
- 3) I will come to be supportive of my child through participation and positive actions and words
- 4) I will serve as a positive role model that can be emulated by all children.
- 5) I will show good sportsmanship at all times towards coaches, officials, opponents, and teammates.
- 6) I will let my child establish his/her own goals and let them make their own progress toward them.
- 7) I will instill the good sportsmanship in my own children and encourage it in their teammates.
- 8) I will not impose my own goals and standards on my child's performance.
- 9) I will let the coach be the coach and not confuse my child with extraneous input.
- 10) I will encourage my child to make his/her best effort at all times.
- 11) I will enjoy the experience of my child growing up though the basketball experience with NPYB, Inc.

Guidelines:

- 1) I will not approach the coach during practice and/or games. If you need to speak with the coach please do so before or after games/practices.
- 2) Only questions regarding coaching or practice should be addressed to the coach. All others need to be addressed to the Officers of NPYB, Inc. at www.npyb.org.
- 3) All parents must understand their responsibility to respect the opinions of other parents, coaches, referees, player, officers, and directors. If there is a disagreement, please utilize discretion especially in front of players. "Bad Mouting" of any kind is detrimental to the function of any organization, and is contrary to NPYB, Inc's philosophy and will not be tolerated. If a problem arises between adult parties that effects the functioning or morale of this league and/or violates any of the aforementioned code of conduct regulation, NPYB, Inc. reserves the right to impose the following disciplinary actions:
  - 1) This is your first warning regarding the code of conduct.
  - 2) A second warning can result in the removal of your privilege to attend your child's games and/or practices.
  - 3) A third warning can result in your child being removed from the team with no refund.

I understand that my behavior at my child's games/practices can result in the removal or my child's removal from NPYB, Inc. I will respect the decisions of my child's coaches, the referees and volunteers of NPYB, Inc.
